GOVERNMENT COMMERCIAL SCHOOL, MYSORE.

Prospectus.—Intending students desirous of prosecuting commercial studies will not fail to get direct benefit from Government Commercial School, Mysore, as it is fortunate enough in having the opportunity of renovating all her old machines with fresh ones. In the matter of instruction imparted in other subjects, the steady rise in the percentage of passes for the past few years is an unmistakable proof. The general facilities by way of accommodation of hours for the busily engaged professional men and officials and the special attention paid to them for coaching them in considerably shorter periods will not fail to be appreciated by such intending persons to qualify themselves further in their walks of life. Inordinate number of new publications on all subjects added to the library is freely available for consultation. Sons and Relatives of Business Men in active trade will not fail to receive adequate training for developing their own already progressive business.

Admissions.—Admissions into the Commercial School can be secured by students studying in the VI Form for shorthand only and of the V Form standard for all other subjects. Anglo Indians should show that they have reached the 7th standard and others can be admitted if they show that they have attained standard equal to the above.
